Students from Management Study Programme, Faculty of Economics and Business UGM succeeded to be the winners in the 3rd Management Finance Festival (Manifest) 2017.

Management Finance Festival is a national finance competition which was attended by undergraduate students from universities in Indonesia. In the competition which was held by Faculty of Economics and Business, Udayana University Bali on September 27, 2017, Faishal Sandy Wicaksono, a fourth-year student at UGM succeeded to be the first winner while his junior, I Made Tri Meichel Mastra, became the third winner of the competition.

"This competition consists of two categories which are Online Trading Competition and Stock Analysis Competition. This event is held annually by Faculty of Economics and Business Udayana University," said Faishal.

Those two students participated in Online Trading Competition. From hundreds of participants, the scores of all components were calculated to determine the winner.

“This year, Manifest raised Improve Your Skill and Knowledge in Capital Market Investment as its theme,” he added.

In the end of the competition, the juries announced Faishal and Meichel as the first and third winners of Online Trading Competition in the 3rd Management Finance Festival 2017.
