

Culinary Festival Livened Up Anniversary

Friday, 05 March 2010 WIB, By: Marwati

As many as 10 Indonesian traditional cuisines and 3 foreign cuisines from Italy, Japan, and France livened up the culinary festival organized by students of the Faculty of Cultural Sciences, Wednesday (3/3).

Fahmi added that they also invited a Dolalak dance group from Purworejo, Central Java, to join in the festival. Meanwhile, the batik exhibition displayed some batik cloths from coastal regions such as Cirebon and Madura in addition to those from Yogyakarta and Solo.

Related News

- Welcoming UGM Anniversary, Student Association Held Festival of 100% Indonesia
- Faculty of Agricultural Technology UGM Holds Festival of Spicy Cuisines in Yogyakarta
- Food and Culinary Festival Welcomes UGM 66th Anniversary
- Nusantara Festival: Bring Back Youth Enthusiasm in Local Wisdom
- UGM Holds Indonesian Culinary Conference and Festival