

UGM Inaugurates 21 New Officials

Monday, 10 October 2011 WIB, By: Marwati

Change of officials at UGM is part of profession and staff rotation that has to continue. It is expected that with the change, organisational continuity will be sustainable. "The inauguration today will surely become the starting point of making achievements in their respective fields of work for the future of UGM, the nation and the state," said Ir. Adam Pamudji Rahardjo, M.Sc., Ph.D. in the Multimedia Room on Wednesday (5/10).

The Senior Vice Rector for Administration, Planning, Development and Human Resource delivered this message when inaugurating 21 new officials at UGM. He said that while having the mandate, the officials are asked to learn and adjust to their new duties and responsibilities. They are also asked to adjust to the environment which is already conducive. Therefore, the role of the officials of the upper ranks will very much help the new officials in adjusting. "In the adjustment process, I hope that the new officials are prepared mentally so that they have the blessings from God the Almighty and what they are conducting will run well," he said.
