

Team of UGM Faculty of Law Runner-Up in National Student Scientific Paper Competition

Thursday, 03 November 2011 WIB, By: Marwati

Students of UGM Faculty of Law became runner-up in student scientific paper competition from October 21 to 22 at Brawijaya University. The achievement was presented by a delegation consisting of Moch. Adib Zain, Hanifa, and Hesa Adrian Kaswanda, accompanied by Veri Antoni, S.H, M. Hum., lecturer, and Dian Agung Wicaksono, SH., coach.

In the competition with the theme Institutional and Regulatory Reform towards Better Indonesia in the Year 2014, the Faculty sent a paper entitled Initiating Judicial Preview by the Constitutional Court as Enforcement Effort For Constitutionalism. This paper was successful entering the final and presented along with nine others from delegates from several universities in Indonesia.

Dian Agung Wicaksono said that although they cannot achieve the best title, which on occasion was achieved by Airlangga University, the team of UGM Faculty of Law should still be appreciated for it. "Although they cannot be the first winner and only the runner-up, the team should still be appreciated as they have attempted maximally for it," he concluded.
