

Student Admission through National Selection Announced

Monday, 11 May 2015 WIB, By: Marwati

UGM Director for Education and Teaching, Dr. Agr. Ir. Sri Peni Wastutiningsih, announced that this year UGM accepts 3,371 students through the National Selection mechanism (SNMPTN), or 5% of the total applicants to UGM. The total of national admission reaches 137,005. Applicants reach as high as 852.093 nationally.

The most favourite study programme is Management. Other favourites are Pharmacy, Doctor's Education, IT, Civil Engineering, and Mechanical Engineering for natural sciences and Management, Psychology, Accounting, Law, and Communications for social sciences.

Peni explained that the student candidates have to fill in the form at um.ugm.ac.id from 12-18 May 2015, as well as uploading required documents. Peni requested the candidates to provide them well in advance.

Online registration can be done at um.ugm.ac.id from 9-11 June 2015. They also have to sit in the Academic English Proficiency Test (AcEPT) and Academic Potential Test (TPA) on 9 June 2015 on UGM campus. "Locations and schedules of the test can be seen at um.ugm.ac.id on 5 June 2015 starting from 17.00 hours," said Peni.

"The candidates that do not register themselves until 11 June 2015 at 16.00 hrs are deemed to be releasing their rights as UGM students for 2015/2016 academic year," she concluded.

---

Related News

- SNMPTN Registration Closed on Monday, March 6, 2017 at 10.00 p.m.
- UGM, UNY, and UIN Socialise National Selection Test 2014
- UGM Closes In-house Test of Student Admission
- Registration for SNMPTN and SBMPTN 2021 Are Officially Open
- 7,041 Participants Join UGM Vocational School Entrance Test